Tom Bennett

Running the Room: Better behaviour for school teachers

In this session, Tom Bennett, DfE behaviour advisor and founder of researchED, discusses the habits and strategies of the most successful classroom practitioners.

Content:

You will hear from Tom in a live session where he will discuss:

- Social norms
- Routines and how to set them
- Building a better classroom culture
- Interpersonal skills and behaviour
- De-escalation techniques
- Setting consequences that are fair and effective
- Building better respiratory and tactile etiquette
- Maintaining classroom norms from a distance
- Managing behaviour when classes are there before you

This is then followed by a 30-minute live Q&A where you can put your problems or queries directly to Tom.

Tom Bennett has been the UK government's school 'Behaviour Czar', advising on behaviour policy, as well as chairing the Mental Health in Schools panel; currently he leads the DfE Behaviour Hubs project.

He is also the founder of researchED, a grass-roots organisation that raises research literacy in education and campaigns for better evidence awareness worldwide. It now holds events in five continents and thirteen countries, attracting thousands of followers and generating discussion and change in schools throughout the world. He is also the editor of researchED magazine, with over 15,000 global subscribers.

He has written five books about teacher training, including his most recent best-selling success 'Running the Room- a teacher's guide to behaviour'.

In 2015, he was long listed as one of the world's top teachers in the GEMS Global Teacher Prize. In the same year he made the Huffington Post's 'Top Ten Global Bloggers' list. He is also the Director of Tom Bennett Training, which supports some of the most disadvantaged students and schools in England, by helping them to raise standards. His online resources have been viewed over 1,200,000 times, and he is a Teacher-Fellow of Corpus Christi College, University of Cambridge.
